

NINETY-SECOND YEAR.

KRUGER REPORTED ASKING CESSATION.

Threatens Otherwise to Destroy Johannesburg and the Gold Mines.

BULLER'S VANGUARD IS AT LANG'S NEK.

If Boers Stand at the Pass, a Battle Probably Will Be Fought Monday—Further News from Mafeking.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
London, May 19.—(Copyright, 1900, by the New York Herald Company.)—The Transvaal Government decided today to send a messenger to Lord Roberts, requesting a cessation of hostilities, demanding a guarantee that the lives of all colonists fighting with the Boers shall be spared, and stating that unless these terms are granted the mines will be blown up and Johannesburg destroyed.

The Government has been for some time considering the destruction of the mines. President Kruger and the Executive Council were against the proposition, but strong popular pressure was brought to bear in favor of it. There is much uncertainty in Pretoria, where Kruger is the only strong hand. The Boer President told me yesterday that he would fight until the last cartridge, but many officials and burghers are shaky and desire a compromise. They do not want to defend Pretoria for fear that their property will be destroyed by bombardment.

A large meeting was held Thursday night, at which the women of Pretoria passed resolutions urging the defense of the capital to the bitter end. Provisions will soon be scarce in Pretoria. All is being taken to Lydenburg, where the capital may be removed.

Notwithstanding the discouraging situation, President Steyn maintains a cheery and bold demeanor.

A few hundred men of the Foreign Legion attacked Mafeking Saturday and carried several forts. The Boers failed to support them, and the result was a fiasco. The relieving column of British was then within a few miles of the town and the Boer Government has stopped all telegraphic news going out.

London, May 20.—It is reported that the Pretoria Government has decided to sue to Lord Roberts for peace. While no confirmation of this rumor is at hand, it is generally credited.

BULLER MAKING PROGRESS.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.
London, May 19, Midnight.—(Copyright, 1900, by W. R. Hearst.)—There is still no official confirmation of the report of the relief of Mafeking. Every effort has been made by the Government to obtain any news, but all endeavors have been unsuccessful. Lord Roberts has heard nothing from the relieving force, and the press messages from Pretoria today make no further mention whatever of Mafeking.

The only news from South Africa is Buller's report of his rapid advance through Natal. Dundonald's cavalry has reached Lang's Nek and nearly caught the retreating Boers. If the latter make a stand in the pass a battle will occur, probably on Monday. If their retreat is continued, the road is open to Buller to enter the Transvaal immediately.

The dispatch from General Buller, referred to above, is dated May 19, at Newcastle, and reads as follows:

"General Buller moved to Ingogo today and General Dundonald to Lang's Nek. We almost caught up with the tail of the enemy's column and have captured a few prisoners and weapons.

"The men have marched very well indeed. I left Ladysmith May 19, and the road used, am now 138 miles from there.

"The telegraph section has been indefatigable, and the army service corps has kept up full of ration all the time.

"The Fifth Division also has done great service."

HOW BRITISH ENTERED.

Pretoria, May 19.—The Associated Press special western border correspondent wires that the relief column entered Mafeking on Wednesday night. General Buller engaged them successfully during the whole of Wednesday night, and in the night one of his officers withdrew without his knowledge, thus leaving a way for the column to enter.

MARION LED RELIEF COLUMN.

London, May 19.—A dispatch from Lord Roberts says that the siege of Mafeking was abandoned on May 19.

The latest news received at Cape Town from the relief column, which left Kimberley secretly, shows it passed the Taunus and Vryburg districts without encountering the Federal column. It was 1,500 strong, and composed of Cape police, Diamond Fields Horse, Imperial Yeomanry and the Kimberley Mounted Regiment, with three Maxim.

The force reached Maritzburg, twenty miles south of Mafeking, on May 11. The baggage was conveyed on led horses and light mule wagons. Quantities of live stock were captured.

Colonel T. B. Mahon, who it is understood commanded the relief column, served in the Dongola and Nile expeditions with General Kitchener.

ROBERTS' PROGRESS DELAYED.

Kroonstad, May 19.—General Buller, with his mounted infantry, today made a dash upon Bothaville and captured three commandos and nineteen other prisoners, mostly Zulus.

The Colt machine gun section, commanded by Attorney, has arrived here.

Wing to the derailing of two trains at the Vet River, progress toward the completion of the railway division will be delayed for some days.

TURN AGAINST FOREIGNERS.

Capt Town, May 19.—The Cape Argus says that eighty of Eloff's patrol were killed at Mafeking and that the Irish-American brigade were greatly cut up at Kroonstad.

The Boers are turning against the French and Germans.

WILKINSON'S ANALYSIS.

London, May 20.—Spencer Wilkinson, reviewing the situation in South Africa, for the Associated Press, at midnight, says:

"The relief of Mafeking relieved Lord Roberts of an embarrassment. It was probably necessary for him to move north from Bloemfontein a little before he was quite ready to do so."

PEACE TRIBUNAL APPEALS TO POWERS.

Berne, Switzerland, May 19.—The committee of the International Peace Bureau has decided to make a final appeal to the twenty-five Powers who are signers of the conventions adopted by The Hague Peace Conference, in favor of the restoration of peace in South Africa.

The committee calls attention to the clause of the convention for the peaceful settlement of international conflicts by the terms of which the signatory Powers agreed to use all efforts for the settlement not only of difficulties among themselves, but of all international disputes. Consequently, the committee declares, an offer of mediation cannot be considered by Great Britain as an unfriendly act.

SAM MOSER FOUND AT SALT LAKE CITY.

His Wife and Three Children Were Killed Near Tremont, Ill.

HE TRIED TO KILL HIMSELF.

After Inflicting a Slight Wound He Jumped Into River Jordan—Captured After His Escape.

Salt Lake, Utah, May 19.—A man giving his name as Samuel Moser was taken into custody by the police this morning, after having made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide. It is said that the man made a brief statement to the officers that he had committed murder and came here to end his life. According to his story he had gone to the bridge across Jordan River and shot himself and then dropped into the water, but the wound inflicted was slight, and he succeeded in reaching the bank. He then made his way upriver, in a half-dazed condition, and fell down on Second South street, where the police took him in charge. In his pocket was found a slip of paper giving his name as Sam Moser, with his Salt Lake address.

An officer went to his room and found two letters in stamped envelopes, one addressed to the police and another to the editor of the Peoria Herald. The first letter is of a rambling, incoherent nature, in which he indicates that his trouble was the result of the offhand people at his home.

BATTLE SOUTH OF MAFKING.

Berlin, May 19.—A dispatch from Cape Town says that the relief column as it approached Mafeking from the south, was attacked by a strong force of Boers, who were repulsed. The column then pushed on, and the Boers retreated hurriedly. The Boer guard continued in action for some time. The British casualties were slight.

BOERS WITHDREW EASTWARD.

London, May 19.—A dispatch from Mafeking, dated May 17, says that a large British force from the south succeeded in entering Mafeking yesterday (Wednesday), and that the Boers were withdrawing eastward.

OLD LONDON IS DELIRIOUS.

Business Abandoned and Two Nights and a Day Devoted to Carnival.

BY ALBERT STANHOPE.
REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

London, Sunday, May 20.—(Copyright, 1900, by the New York Herald Company.)—Wild as the city was on Friday night over Mafeking's relief, it was not a patch on what the excitement was yesterday. It would not be quite right to say the demonstrations were resumed yesterday. It really never stopped. All Friday night crowds were marching about, shouting and singing. They did not cease when business men came into town yesterday morning. The latter did not come to do work, but to swell the tide of carnival.

BY ALBERT STANHOPE.

It was useless to think of any work, and employers were only too glad to give their men a holiday. Had they not done so, probably everybody would have taken it with out leave. London is simply stark mad.

As a Frenchman was watching the extraordinary sight from a window, he said:

"Why do the English talk about the French being an excitable race? They are nothing compared to this. I never saw anything like it in my life."

An American said:

"This beats all our war excitement. Wherever one went he found men, women and children, all wild with ecstasy and fervid patriotism."

All day people were busy preparing decorations and illuminations for last night.

There was hardly a street, therefore, but what was a blaze of color. Flags flew everywhere. On the Stock Exchange flags were distributed free, and we betide any member discovered without one.

Every vehicle in the streets sported flags, and nearly every passenger had one to wave.

Many were patriotic ribbons and buttons bearing the portraits of favorite commanders. Baden-Powell most of all.

Mafeking Relief Fund.

One of the biggest and most successful of the processions was led by a man in khaki. A red sign carried by two men bore in white letters these words:

"Lady Georgiana Curzon's fund—to send the women and children of Mafeking to the seaside and relieve them generally."

Immense crowds composed the following of this procession, and money was simply hung at them. Lady Georgiana was able to cable £5,000 to Colonel Baden-Powell.

The hotels, inside and out, were handsomely decorated with flags and other decorations in honor of the great event.

Enthusiastic demonstrations are common in London, but nothing ever was known to compare with the jubilation since the first news of Mafeking arrived. Traffic was difficult in the principal streets yesterday, and in the city it stopped altogether. It

HOME FOR AGED ACTORS.

Handsome Subscriptions Made to Establish It.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL.

New York, May 19.—At the annual meeting of the Actors' Fund of America this evening it was unanimously decided as recommended by President Louis Aldrich, to establish in New York a home for aged and infirm actors and the trustees were instructed to consider plans for its accomplishment.

At Hayman at once subscribed $10,000 contingent on the actors and managers donating $50,000, and deposited a check for the amount. Mr. Aldrich notified the profession of these steps and the result was that on the first day $12,500, exclusive of Hayman's $10,000, was pledged. Among the subscribers were Charles Frohman $5,000, Maurice Grau, W. H. Crane, Joseph Jefferson, Francis Wilson, $1,000 each; Henry Irving, John Drew and several others equally as well known, subscribed $500 each.

TO DEFEND JOHANNESBURG.

Official Announcement Is Made at Pretoria.

Pretoria, May 20.—It is officially announced that Johannesburg will be defended. The Consuls of the neutral Powers have been advised to look after their citizens, as the Government will not hold itself responsible for injury to persons or damage to property.

Commandant Botha, Commander-in-Chief of the Boer forces, reports that the burghers are joining in great numbers.

The Government has suggested to the British Commander-in-Chief an exchange of prisoners on parole.

Vrede has been proclaimed the capital of the Free State.

DEADLOCK IN CONFERENCE.

Methodists Do More Fruitless Baiting for Bishops.

Chicago, May 19.—The Methodist General Conference is in a deadlock over the election of two members of the episcopacy. Three more ballots have been taken to date without result. The last ballot announced, however, showed evidence of a landslide for a candidate hitherto not prominent in the balloting, Doctor E. V. Neely of Philadelphia, who almost stamped the conference by a powerful speech on the life tenure of the episcopacy.

GIVES FORTUNE IN JEWELS.

Senator Clark's Gift to His Daughter Will Cost $85,000.

New York, May 19.—It is announced that Senator Clark will give his daughter, Miss Katherine Clark, jewels valued at $85,000 upon the occasion of her marriage to Doctor Lewis Rutherford Morris. Six thousand wedding invitations will be issued, and it is said that the total cost of the wedding will be at least $125,000.

STRIKE REACHES FEDERAL COURT.

Injunction Is Issued Prohibiting Interference With the Mails.

HEARING ON FRIDAY.

Fifty Leaders of the Union Cited to Appear.

CARS TO RUN TO-DAY.

No Further Steps Are Taken Toward a Settlement.

Judge Elmer E. Adams of the United States District Court issued a temporary writ of injunction yesterday afternoon, directed against the strikers, restraining them and all others from interfering in any manner with the operation of the mail cars on the street car lines. About fifty of the strike leaders named as defendants are cited to appear in court next Friday morning at 10 o'clock to show cause why a permanent injunction should be granted.

The temporary writ of injunction was based on a bill of complaint, filed by United States Marshal B. H. Baughman, George W. Stoupe, superintendent of city mail delivery, and other post office officials and employees, to the effect that the collection and delivery of mails had been impeded by obstructions placed on the street car tracks, which interfered with the running of mail cars.

United States Deputy Marshal Bohlert sent out deputies yesterday to serve the injunction citation on the defendants. He said he expected no trouble; that in the event of a change in conditions, which his deputies would be sure to detect, he would not hesitate to ask for Federal troops.

FEDERAL COURT TAKES ACTION.

Judge Elmer E. Adams of the United States District Court issued a temporary writ of injunction yesterday at 4:30 p. m., restraining strike leaders and all other persons from interfering in any manner with the running of mail cars over the street car lines in the city and county of St. Louis. The injunction is sweeping and sets forth clearly that no person shall obstruct the cars or in any way demolish the property of the roads, or obstruct or interfere with the running of mail cars.

A hearing on the writ will be given to the defendants on Friday.

Application was made for the order at 10 o'clock in the morning when the court opened by District Attorney E. A. Rozier. His action was based upon information and complaints filed with the Government authorities by Post Office officials and employees. The affidavits were made by Postmaster E. W. Baughman, George B. Stoupe, superintendent of the city delivering department; F. C. Reims, superintendent of the inquiry department; A. Boffinger, Rose, and other officials.

When Mr. Rozier presented the petition he stated to the court that additional affidavits would be presented as soon as they could be prepared. Judge Adams took the matter under consideration and said he would hear the motion for a temporary injunction at 2 o'clock. At that hour he announced that an injunction would be issued, but that the extent of it would not be determined until later in the afternoon. After disposing of one case, which was on trial, he retired to his chambers and was for some time in conference with the District Attorney.

The Injunction.

At 4:30 he sent the following document to the clerk:
